2-215. Mileage and per diem of jurors.

2-208. Names randomly drawn from master jury list — Qualification questionnaire forms for prospective jurors — Mailing and return — Order to appear — Criminal contempt — Penalty for misrepresentation. — (1) The court or any other state or county official having authority to conduct a trial or hearing with a jury within the county may direct the jury commission to draw and assign to that court or official the number of qualified jurors deemed necessary for one (1) or more jury panels or as required by law for a grand jury. Upon receipt of the direction and in a manner prescribed by the court, the jury commission shall publicly draw at random, by use of a manual, mechanical, or automated system, from the master jury list the number of prospective jurors specified. Neither the names drawn nor the list shall be disclosed to any person except upon specific order of the presiding judge.

(2) Each person on the prospective jury panel shall be served with a summons, issued by the clerk of the court or the jury commissioner. The summons shall be served either personally, or by regular mail or certified mail, addressed to the prospective juror at that person's usual residence, business or post office address.

(3) The clerk or the jury commissioner shall mail a qualification questionnaire form, accompanied by instructions, addressed to the prospective jurors at their usual residence, business or post office address. The qualification questionnaire form may be sent together with the summons in a single mailing to a prospective juror. The qualification questionnaire form shall be in a form prescribed by the supreme court. The qualification questionnaire form must be completed and returned to the clerk or the jury commissioner within ten (10) days from the date of mailing. The qualification questionnaire form shall elicit the name, address of residence, and age of the prospective juror and whether the prospective juror: (a) is a citizen of the United States of America and a resident of the county, (b) is able to read, speak and understand the English language, (c) has any disability impairing his capacity to render satisfactory jury service, and (d) has lost the right to serve on a jury because of a felony criminal conviction as provided by section 3, article VI, of the constitution of the state of Idaho, and who has not been restored to the rights of citizenship pursuant to section 18-310, Idaho Code, or other applicable law. The qualification questionnaire form shall contain the prospective juror's declaration that his responses are true to the best of his knowledge and his acknowledgment that a willful misrepresentation of a material fact may be punished as a misdemeanor. Notarization of the completed qualification questionnaire form shall not be required. If the prospective juror is unable to complete the form, another person may do so on his or her behalf and shall indicate that such person has done so and the reason therefor. If it appears there is an omission, ambiguity, or error in a returned form, the clerk or the jury commissioner shall again send the form with instructions to the prospective juror to make the necessary addition, clarification, or correction and to return the form to the jury commission within ten (10) days after its second mailing.

(4) Any prospective juror who fails to return a completed qualification questionnaire form as instructed shall be directed by the jury commission to appear forthwith before the clerk or the jury commissioner to complete the qualification questionnaire form. At the time of his appearance for jury service, or at the time of interview before the court, clerk, or the jury commissioner, any prospective juror may be required to complete another qualification questionnaire form in the presence of the court, clerk, or the jury commissioner, at which time the prospective juror may be questioned, but only with regard to his responses to questions contained on the form and grounds for his excuse or disqualification. Any information thus acquired by the court, clerk, or the jury commissioner shall be noted on the qualification questionnaire form.

(5) A prospective juror who fails to appear as directed by the commission, pursuant to subsection (4) of this section shall be ordered by the court to appear and show cause for his failure to appear as directed. A prospective juror who fails to appear pursuant to the court's order may be subject to contempt proceedings under chapter 6, title 7, Idaho Code, and applicable rules of the supreme court, and the prospective juror's service may be postponed to a new prospective jury panel as set by the presiding judge.

(6) Any person who willfully misrepresents a material fact on a qualification questionnaire form for the purpose of avoiding or securing service as a juror is guilty of a misdemeanor.

(7) The contents of the juror qualification questionnaire form shall be confidential to the extent provided by rules of the Idaho supreme court.

(8) The clerk or the jury commissioner may provide an opportunity to a prospective juror to complete and return the qualification questionnaire form through electronic mail, facsimile transmission, or other reliable means of communication prior to mailing the qualification questionnaire form to the prospective juror. If the prospective juror completes and returns the qualification questionnaire form in such manner, the qualification questionnaire form need not be mailed to the prospective juror.

Amendments.

The 2013 amendment, by ch. 207, in subsection (5), updated the reference in the first sentence and rewrote the last sentence, which formerly read: “If the prospective juror fails to appear pursuant to the court’s order or fails to show good cause for his failure to appear as directed by the jury commission, he is guilty of contempt and upon conviction may be fined not more than three hundred dollars ($300) or imprisoned not more than three (3) days, or both, and postponed to a new prospective jury panel as set by the presiding judge”.

2-213. Stay of proceedings or quashing indictment for irregularity in selecting jury — Evidence in support of motion — Remedies exclusive — Contents of records not to be disclosed.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Applicability.

Employers’ claim against the manager of the state insurance fund (SIF) for failure to distribute a dividend to policyholders under § 72-915 was grounded in contract, not statute, and, therefore, the five-year statute of limitation in § 5-216 applied; it was the contract, and its breach by the SIF, that allowed the employers and their class to bring the action. Farber v. Idaho State Ins. Fund, 152 Idaho 495, 272 P.3d 467 (2012).

2-215. Mileage and per diem of jurors. — A juror shall be paid mileage for his travel expenses from his residence to the place of holding court and return at the same rate per mile as established by resolution of the county commissioners for county employees in the county where the juror resides, and shall be compensated at the following rate, to be paid from the county treasury:

(1) Five dollars ($5.00), or a rate of more than five dollars ($5.00) up to twenty-five dollars ($25.00) as determined by the county commissioners of the county where the juror resides, for each one-half (1/2) day, or portion thereof, unless the juror travels more than thirty (30) miles from his residence in which event he shall receive ten dollars ($10.00), or a rate of more than ten dollars ($10.00) up to fifty dollars ($50.00) as determined by the county commissioners of the county where the juror resides, for each one-half (1/2) day or portion thereof;

(2) Ten dollars ($10.00), or a rate of more than ten dollars ($10.00) up to fifty dollars ($50.00) as determined by the county commissioners in the county where the juror resides, for each day’s required attendance at court of more than one-half (1/2) day.

STATUTORY NOTES

Amendments.

The 2013 amendment, by ch. 66, in subsection (1) added “or a rate of more than five dollars ($5.00) up to twenty-five dollars ($25.00) as determined by the county commissioners of the county where the juror resides” and “or a rate of more than ten dollars ($10.00) up to fifty dollars ($50.00) as determined by the county commissioners of the county where the juror resides”; and added “or a rate of more than ten dollars ($10.00) up to fifty dollars ($50.00) as determined by the county commissioners in the county where the juror resides” in subsection (2).

ANALYSIS

Highway access.
Payment of taxes.

Highway Access.

The well-established elements that a party must establish by clear and satisfactory evidence in order to establish adverse possession upon a written claim of title are: (1) that they entered into possession, as that term is defined by § 5-208, of the disputed property; (2) under a claim of title; (3) exclusive of other right; (4) that there has been a continuous occupation and possession of the disputed property described in the written instrument; (5) that they have so held the property for the statutory period 3; and (6) that they have paid all taxes, state, county or municipal, which have been levied and assessed upon such land according to law. Kennedy v. Schneider, 151 Idaho 440, 259 P.3d 586 (2011).

Payment of Taxes.

Where county's assessment methodology made it impossible to produce conclusive evidence that an adverse claimant had paid taxes on a disputed parcel of land, title cannot be quieted in the claimant. Kennedy v.

Schneider, 151 Idaho 440, 259 P.3d 586 (2011).

taxes on a disputed parcel of land, title cannot be quieted in the claimant. Kennedy v. Schneider, 151 Idaho 440, 259 P.3d 586 (2011).

5-215. Action on judgment or for mesne profits of real property.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Foreign Actions.

This section applies only to an action upon a judgment, requiring a judgment creditor to file a completely new case. An Enforcement of Foreign Judgments Act (EFJA) filing does not involve initiating a new case, rather, the foreign judgment is treated in the same manner as an Idaho judgment by the clerk of the court in which the judgment is filed, and is subject to the same procedures, defenses and proceedings for reopening, vacating, or staying as an Idaho judgment, and may be enforced or satisfied in like manner as an Idaho judgment. Grazer v. Jones, — Idaho —, 294 P.3d 184 (2013).

5-216. Action on written contract.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

ANALYSIS

Application.

When period begins to run.

Application.

Employers' claim against the manager of the state insurance fund (SIF) for failure to distribute a dividend to policyholders under § 72-915 was grounded in contract, not statute, and, therefore, the five-year statute of limitation in this section applied; it was the contract, and its breach by the SIF, that allowed the employers and their class to bring the action. Farber v. Idaho State Ins. Fund, 152 Idaho 495, 272 P.3d 467 (2012).

When Period Begins to Run.

Because the five-year statute of limitations did not begin to run against buyers of farmland while the buyers were in uninterrupted possession, the buyers were not barred from asserting a claim for specific performance as to land they possessed in accordance with the terms of a land exchange agreement they had made with the sellers more than five years earlier. Peterson v. Gentillon, — Idaho —, 296 P.3d 390 (2013).

5-217. Action on oral contract.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Commencement of Running of Statute.

Trial court did not err in holding that a property owner's breach of contract claim against a well-drilling company was barred by the statute because the four-year limitations period began to run in August 2006 when construction of a well on the owner's property was completed; hence, the owner's April 6, 2011 action was untimely. Stapleton v. Jack Cushman Drilling, — Idaho —, 291 P.3d 418 (2012).

5-218. Statutory liabilities, trespass, trover, replevin, and fraud.

ANALYSIS

Applicability.
Fraud.

Applicability.

Where a former client's disability checks were alleged to have been cashed and spent by the law firm which received the checks, the cause of action was not subject to the statute of limitations for legal malpractice under § 5-219(4) or the statute of limitations for fraud under subsection (4) of this section. It was an action for conversion under § 28-3-118(7); however, under any of these sections, the limitations period ran before plaintiff filed suit. McCormack v. Caldwell, 152 Idaho 15, 266 P.3d 490 (Ct. App. 2011).

Fraud.

Where fraud was alleged as an affirmative defense and the court was not provided with records the purchaser actually reviewed such that the court could analyze the records and determine whether they would have disclosed the falsity of the alleged misrepresentations, the date from which the statute of limitations should run could not be conclusively determined. Golden West Holdings, LLC v. BBT Holdings, LLC, 2010 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 123819 (D. Idaho 2010).

In an action against the Boy Scouts of America, and an affiliated church, arising from the alleged molestation of a boy scout by a troop leader during the late 1960's, the three-year fraud statute of limitations under subsection (4) of this section, rather than the two-year personal injury statute of limitations under § 5-219(4), applied to the former boy scout's claim of institutional fraud by omission; the former boy scout specifically alleged fraud and assumed the heavy duty of proving an intentional tort by clear and convincing evidence. Doe v. Presiding Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 87290 (D. Idaho 2011).

Chapter 7 debtor had to repay $48,980 which she received from a public housing authority after she rented one half of a duplex to her son and daughter-in-law, even though her son and daughter-in-law were eligible to receive Section 8 housing assistance, because she falsely stated that she was not related to her son and daughter-in-law when she signed several documents the authority used to approve her application. The action was not time-barred under subsection (4) because the authority did not learn that the debtor and her tenants were related until 2009. Boise City/Ada County Housing Auth. v. O'Brien (In re O'Brien), 2011 Bankr. LEXIS 3082 (Bankr. D. Idaho Aug. 10, 2011).

Malpractice actions.
—Foreign objects.
—Fraud and deceit.

Wrongful death actions.

Accrual of Action.

Chapter 7 trustee's adversary proceeding alleging that a notary public and the notary's employer were liable under § 51-118 for damages the notary caused when she notarized the forged signature of a debtor on a deed of trust was not time-barred, even though the trustee filed his adversary proceeding on March 25, 2009, more than three years after the notary notarized the debtor's signature. Subsection (4) of this section gave the debtor two years from the date he discovered the notary's misconduct to file a lawsuit. The debtor discovered the notary's conduct in May 2006, and declared bankruptcy on March 28, 2008. 11 U.S.C.S. § 108 extended the period the trustee had to file his adversary proceeding until March 28, 2010. Gugino v. Alliance Title & Escrow Corp. (In re Ganier), 2010 Bankr. LEXIS 1444 (Bankr. D. Idaho 2010).

Applicability.

Where a former client's disability checks were alleged to have been cashed and spent by the law firm which received the checks, the cause of action was not subject to the statute of limitations for legal malpractice under subsection (4) of this section or the statute of limitations for fraud under § 5-218(4). It was an action for conversion under § 28-3-118(7); however, under any of these sections, the limitations period ran before plaintiff filed suit. McCormack v. Caldwell, 152 Idaho 15, 266 P.3d 490 (Ct. App. 2011).

Malpractice Actions.

Where the seller in a real estate transaction refused to return their earnest money, allegedly based on unclear language drafted by the buyer's attorneys, the buyer's cause of action for professional negligence against the attorneys was barred; some damage occurred more than two years prior to the commencement of the action. Reynolds v. Trout Jones Gledhill Fuhrman, P.A., — Idaho —, 293 P.3d 645 (2013).

—Foreign Objects.

Because a permanent plate installed during spinal surgery was intentionally placed in the patient's body for the purpose of medical treatment, it was not a foreign object, and the foreign object exception to this rule was not applicable. Stuard v. Jorgenson, 150 Idaho 701, 249 P.3d 1156 (2011).

—Fraud and Deceit.

In an action against the Boy Scouts of America, and an affiliated church arising from the alleged molestation of a boy scout by a troop leader during the late 1960's, the three-year fraud statute of limitations under § 5-218(4), rather than the two-year personal injury statute of limitations under subsection (4) of this section, applied to the former boy scout's claim of institutional fraud by omission; the former boy scout specifically alleged fraud and assumed the heavy duty of proving an intentional tort by clear and convincing evidence. Doe v. Presiding Bishop of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints, 2011 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 87290 (D. Idaho 2011).

—Occurrence of Damage.

Because any injuries resulting from a surgery performed in the wrong location were objectively ascertainable at that time and would have been discovered if a more thorough examination had been performed, a medical malpractice suit was time-barred, although the patient's symptoms subsided after the surgery and he had no knowledge of any negligence. Stuard v. Jorgenson, 150 Idaho 701, 249 P.3d 1156 (2011).

Wrongful Death Actions.

The statute of limitations on the decedent's own cause of action is irrelevant when ascertaining the timeliness of his heirs' wrongful death action. As the actionable wrong for a wrongful death action is not complete until the death of the decedent, the statute of limitations does not begin running until that time. Castorena v. GE, 149 Idaho 609, 238 P.3d 209 (2010).

Negligence.
Standing.

Negligence.

A property owner's 2011 negligence claim against a well-drilling company was barred by the four-year limitations period; there was no evidence that an act of negligence caused damage until the well caved in, which occurred in 2010. Stapleton v. Jack Cushman Drilling, — Idaho —, 291 P.3d 418 (2012).

Standing.

Under this section, the plaintiffs had no standing to bring an action; the public use and maintenance of the road from 1979 onward was not disputed, so the four-year time period to bring an action ended before the current plaintiffs acquired the property. # WASTE AND WILFUL TRESPASS ON REAL PROPERTY

SECTION.

6-202. Actions for trespass.

6-202. Actions for trespass. — Any person who, without permission of the owner, or the owner's agent, willfully and intentionally enters upon the real property of another person which property is posted with "No Trespassing" signs or other notices of like meaning, spaced at intervals of not less than one (1) notice per six hundred sixty (660) feet along such real property; or who willfully and intentionally cuts down or carries off any wood or underwood, tree or timber, or girdles, or otherwise willfully and intentionally injures any tree or timber on the land of another person, or on the street or highway in front of any person's house, village, or city lot, or cultivated grounds; or on the commons or public grounds of or in any city or town, or on the street or highway in front thereof, without lawful authority, is liable to the owner of such land, or to such city or town, for treble the amount of damages which may be assessed therefor or fifty dollars ($50.00), plus a reasonable attorney's fee which shall be taxed as costs, in any civil action brought to enforce the terms of this act if the plaintiff prevails.

STATUTORY NOTES

Amendments.

The 2013 amendment, by ch. 62, inserted "willfully and intentionally" three times.

Legislative Intent.

Section 1 of S.L. 2013, ch. 62 provided: "Legislative Intent. The Legislature finds that generally, real and personal property damage caused by forest and range fire is measured by the diminution of fair market value of the real and personal property. In Idaho, restoration damages may be awarded if there is a reason personal to the owner for restoring the forest or range land to its original condition.

"The Legislature further finds that in other jurisdictions, large forest or range land owners have sought and have been awarded double recovery, the diminution of fair market value and restoration costs, for the damage to forest or range land caused by forest or range fires. The awards include intangible environmental damages that are clearly speculative in their nature, and should not be recoverable. This legislation clarifies that for real and personal property damage caused by forest or range fire, recovery is limited to reasonable suppression costs, economic damages and either the diminution of fair market value of the real and personal property, or the actual and tangible costs for restoration, not intangible environmental damages, as a result of the forest or range fire."

Compiler's Notes.

Section 4 of S.L. 2013, ch. 62 provided: "Severability. #### School District.

When plaintiffs' school age son was injured after another student pushed him and hit him on the head, the Idaho Tort Claims Act applied to plaintiffs' claims against the school district because it was a governmental entity under this section. The evidence did not create a genuine issue of material fact as to whether the conduct of any school employee was reckless, willful, and wanton, because there was no evidence that the student who hit plaintiffs' son had ever harmed another student. *Mareci v. 6-903. Liability of governmental entities — Defense of employees. — (1) Except as otherwise provided in this act, every governmental entity is subject to liability for money damages arising out of its negligent or otherwise wrongful acts or omissions and those of its employees acting within the course and scope of their employment or duties, whether arising out of a governmental or proprietary function, where the governmental entity if a private person or entity would be liable for money damages under the laws of the state of Idaho, provided that the governmental entity is subject to liability only for the pro rata share of the total damages awarded in favor of a claimant which is attributable to the negligent or otherwise wrongful acts or omissions of the governmental entity or its employees. When the claim for damages arises from construction, operation or maintenance of an impoundment, canal, lateral, drain or associated facilities that are under the supervision or control of the operating agency of irrigation districts whose board consists of directors of its member districts, then such board and its member districts shall be considered a single governmental unit and the claim may be brought and pursued only against the operating unit.

(2) (i) A governmental entity shall provide a defense to its employee, including a defense and indemnification against any claims brought against the employee in the employee's individual capacity when the claims are related to the course and scope of employment, and be responsible for the payment of any judgment on any claim or civil lawsuit against an employee for money damages arising out of any act or omission within the course and scope of his employment; provided that the governmental entity and its employee shall be subject to liability only for the pro rata share of the total damages awarded in favor of a claimant which is attributable to the act or omission of the employee; (ii) provided further, that to the extent there is valid and collectible, applicable insurance or any other right to defense or indemnification legally available to and for the protection of an employee, while operating or using an automobile, aircraft or other vehicle not owned or leased by the governmental entity and while acting within the course and scope of his/her employment or duties, the governmental entity's duty hereunder to indemnify the employee and/or defend any such claim or lawsuit arising out of the operation or use of such personal automobile, aircraft or vehicle, shall be secondary to the obligation of the insurer or indemnitor of such automobile, aircraft or vehicle, whose obligation shall be primary; and (iii) provided further, this subsection shall not be construed to alter or relieve any such indemnitor or insurer of any legal obligation to such employee or to any governmental entity vicariously liable on account of or legally responsible for damages due to the allegedly wrongful error, omissions, conduct, act or deed of such employee.

(3) The defense of its employee by the governmental entity shall be undertaken whether the claim and civil lawsuit is brought in Idaho district court under Idaho law or is brought in a United States court under federal law. The governmental entity may refuse a defense or disavow and refuse to pay any judgment for its employee if it is determined that the act or omission of the employee was not within the course and scope of his employment or included malice or criminal intent.

(4) A governmental entity shall not be entitled to contribution or indemnification or reimbursement for legal fees and expenses from its employee unless a court shall find that the act or omission of the employee was outside the course and scope of his employment or included malice or criminal intent. Any action by a governmental entity against its employee and any action by an employee against the governmental entity for contribution, indemnification or necessary legal fees and expenses shall be tried to the court in the same civil lawsuit brought on the claim against the governmental entity or its employee.

(5) For the purposes of this act and not otherwise, it shall be a rebuttable presumption that any act or omission of an employee within the time and at the place of his employment is within the course and scope of his employment and without malice or criminal intent.

(6) Nothing in this act shall enlarge or otherwise adversely affect the liability of an employee or a governmental entity. Any immunity or other bar to a civil lawsuit under Idaho or federal law shall remain in effect. The fact that a governmental entity may relieve an employee from all necessary legal fees and expenses and any judgment arising from the civil lawsuit shall not under any circumstances be communicated to the trier of fact in the civil lawsuit.

(7) When a claim asserted against an employee in the employee's individual capacity is dismissed by the court, the dismissed party shall have the right to a hearing pursuant to the provisions of section 12-123, Idaho Code.

State employees sued as individuals.

Action Against City.

Under subsection (1), there was sufficient evidence in the record to support a finding that a municipal pool patron was an invitee, and that the city owed her a duty to keep the premises in a reasonably safe condition. Ball v. City of Blackfoot, 152 Idaho 673, 273 P.3d 1266 (2012).

Malice.

Trial court erred in refusing to dismiss plaintiff's tort claims against a police officer where plaintiff failed to satisfy the burden, under subsection (e), of showing that the officer, who was acting during the course and scope of employment when ordering an involuntary catheterization after plaintiff was arrested for DUI, acted maliciously or with criminal intent. Miller v. Idaho State Patrol, 150 Idaho 856, 252 P.3d 1274 (2011).

State Employees Sued as Individuals.

In an action arising from the allegedly wrongful termination of a deputy fire chief, city employees were entitled to dismissal of the fire chief's claims against them in their personal capacities; the fire chief did not rebut the presumption that the employees acted within the course and scope of their employment, rather than in their personal capacities. Brown v. City of Caldwell, 769 F. Supp. 2d 1256 (D. Idaho 2011).

Design Immunity.

Where the homeowner alleged that her home was flooded as the result of a road reconstruction project performed by the city, her claims against the city for nuisance and inverse condemnation were properly dismissed upon summary judgment; the city enjoyed plan or design immunity under subsection (7) of this section. Brown v. City of Pocatello, 148 Idaho 802, 229 P.3d 1164 (2010).

Intentional Tort Exception.

The owner of a trailer park sued the city for interference with contract and defamation after the city terminated electrical service to the trailer park due to the owner's failure to make required upgrades to the electrical system. Dismissal of the owner's claims was proper because the city was exempt from liability for intentional torts. Hoffer v. City of Boise, 151 Idaho 400, 257 P.3d 1226 (2011).

Malice.

Trial court erred in refusing to dismiss plaintiff's tort claims against a police officer

Negligent Performance of Required Function.

Arrestee's negligent infliction of emotional distress claim was not barred by the intentional tort exception to the Idaho Tort Claims Act where the complaint, when viewed in context, alleged that the county not only engaged in deliberately indifferent supervision, but was negligent in allowing an attack upon her while in jail. *Pauls v. 6-926. Judgment or claims in excess of comprehensive liability plan — Reduction by court — Limits of liability. — (1) The combined, aggregate liability of a governmental entity and its employees for damages, costs and attorney's fees under this chapter, on account of bodily or personal injury, death or property damage, or other loss as the result of any one (1) occurrence or accident regardless of the number of persons injured or the number of claimants, shall not exceed and is limited to five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), unless the governmental entity has purchased applicable, valid, collectible liability insurance coverage in excess of said limit, in which event the controlling limit shall be the remaining available proceeds of such insurance. For claims arising from construction, operation or maintenance of impoundments, canals, laterals, drains or associated facilities that are under the supervision or control of the operating agency of irrigation districts whose board consists of directors of its member districts, the combined aggregate limit of liability for the operating agency, its member irrigation districts and their respective employees shall be the combined aggregate limit of a single governmental entity under this section. If any judgment or judgments, including costs and attorney's fees that may be awarded, are returned or entered, and in the aggregate total more than five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000), or the limits provided by said valid, collectible liability insurance, if any, whether in one (1) or more cases, the court shall reduce the amount of the award or awards, verdict or verdicts, or judgment or judgments in any case or cases within its jurisdiction so as to reduce said aggregate loss to said applicable statutory limit or to the limit or limits provided by said valid, collectible insurance, if any, whichever is greater.

(2) Limits of liability specified in this section shall not be increased or altered by the fact that a decedent, on account of whose death a wrongful death claim is asserted hereunder, left surviving him or her more than one (1) person entitled to make claim therefor, nor shall the aggregate recovery exceed the single limit provided for injury or death to any one (1) person in those cases in which there is both an injury claim and a death claim arising out of the injury to one (1) person, the intent of this section being to limit such liabilities and recoveries in the aggregate to one (1) limit only.

(3) The entire exposure of the entity and its employee or employees hereunder shall not be enlarged by the number of liable employees or the theory of concurrent or consecutive torts or tort feasons or of a sequence of accidents or incidents if the injury or injuries or their consequences stem from one (1) occurrence or accident.

(4) In no case shall any court enter judgment, or allow any judgment to stand, which results in the limit of liability provided in this section to be exceeded in any manner or respect. If any court has jurisdiction of two (2) or more such claims in litigation in which the adjudication is simultaneous and, in the aggregate, exceeds the limits provided in this section, the reduction shall be pro rata in a proportion consistent with the relative amounts of loss of the claimants before the court; otherwise, the reduction shall be determined and made in view of limits remaining after the prior settlement of any other such claims or the prior satisfaction of any other such judgments, and no consideration shall be given to other such outstanding claims, if any, which have not been settled or satisfied prior thereto.

(5) The court shall reduce any judgment in excess of the limits provided by this act in any matter within its jurisdiction, whether by reason of the adjudication in said proceedings alone or of the total or aggregate of all such awards, judgments, settlements, voluntary payments or other such loss relevant to the limits provided in this section.

Expert Witness.

In a medical malpractice action, an expert witness must show that he or she is familiar with the local standard of care for the relevant timeframe and specialty and must also state how he or she became familiar with that standard of care. Suhadolnik v. Pressman, 151 Idaho 110, 254 P.3d 11 (2011).

Award of exceptional expert witness fees was not proper where the only reason given by the court to justify exceptional fees was that the case required experts on the vascular system to travel and testify. Such specialized knowledge and expert testimony of the witnesses was of a type required in every malpractice case. Nightengale v. Timmel, 151 Idaho 347, 256 P.3d 755 (2011).

Summary judgment was properly awarded to a chiropractor in a patient's medical malpractice action because the patient's expert, who was from California, could not testify that the expert knew the local standard of care in Idaho; throughout the expert's deposition, the expert repeatedly illustrated a lack of knowledge regarding the applicable standard of care. Arregui v. Gallegos-Main, — Idaho —, 291 P.3d 1000 (2012).

Knowledge of Community Standard.

While it may be acceptable for an expert to demonstrate knowledge of a local standard of care by reviewing deposition testimony, that testimony must clearly articulate the local standard for the particular time, place and specialty at issue in order to meet the foundational requirements of § 6-1013. Suhadolnik v. Pressman, 151 Idaho 110, 254 P.3d 11 (2011).

"Provision of Health Care".

Language of the statute treats the provision of health care as a single act and not a series of steps, each of which must be analyzed to determine if it involved professional judgment. Hoover v. Hunter, 150 Idaho 658, 249 P.3d 851 (2011).

Standard of Care.

Summary judgment was properly awarded to physicians in a medical malpractice action because plaintiffs failed to comply with the requirements of this section; even assuming the deceased patient's husband, a retired EMT, was competent to testify to the standard of care of a gastroenterologist in an emergency situation, he had not adequately alleged familiarity with the local standard of care and did not provide a basis for concluding that the standard of emergency care would have been a single national standard that did not vary from procedure to procedure. Hoover v. Hunter, 150 Idaho 658, 249 P.3d 851 (2011).

6-1603. Limitation on noneconomic damages.

ANALYSIS

Application. In general. Willful or reckless misconduct.
Application. In a tort action filed by plaintiff tenant who fell down the stairs of the leased premises, sufficient evidence showed defendant landlord engaged in willful and wanton misconduct and, therefore, this section’s limit on	noneconomic damages did not apply. The landlord knew that the steps had deteriorated to the point that they constituted a hazard, improperly repaired the treads by using brackets of the wrong size, and was warned by another tenant that the stairs treads were loose. Phillips v. Erhart, 151 Idaho 100, 254 P.3d 1 (2011).

In General.

From a plain reading of this section, the noneconomic damages cap applies to each individual bringing a cause of action, not on a per-claim basis. Aguilar v. Coonrod, 151 Idaho 642, 262 P.3d 671 (2011).

Willful or Reckless Misconduct.

This section does not require the jury to find that the defendant subjectively knew of a high probability of harm. Phillips v. Erhart, 151 Idaho 100, 254 P.3d 1 (2011).

Trial court did not err in a negligence action in permitting a jury to consider whether a tire company's conduct was reckless; the allegations placed the company on notice that its conduct might have involved a heightened degree of negligence and that it, therefore, faced potential liability in excess of the cap on noneconomic damages in subsection (1). Carrillo v. Boise Tire Co., 152 Idaho 741, 274 P.3d 1256 (2012).

Amended Complaint.

In an insurance action, plaintiff's motion to amend the complaint to include a claim for punitive damages pursuant to subsection (2) was granted, because defendant insurance company knew that the insured was a covered insured at the commencement of the claims litigation and prevented the insured from learning that information. The totality of the evidence presented by the plaintiff in its motion to amend would support a jury verdict for punitive damages. United Heritage Prop. & Cas. Co. v. Farmers Alliance Mut. Ins. Co., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17592 (D. Idaho Feb. 9, 2012).

Amendment of Claim.

Although the landowner was entitled to amend his complaint, he was not granted leave to add a prayer for punitive damages; accordingly, the district court properly refused to award them. Bach v. Bagley, 148 Idaho 784, 229 P.3d 1146 (2010).

Assignability.

Punitive damages are not necessarily personal to the plaintiff and, therefore, may be assigned, e.g., to an insurance company, along with the assignable underlying cause of action. United Heritage Prop. & Cas. Co. v. Farmers Alliance Mut. Ins. Co., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17592 (D. Idaho Feb. 9, 2012).

Basis for Award.

Punitive damages may not be awarded based on simple negligence, but instead depend on whether the plaintiff is able to establish the requisite intersection of two factors: a bad act and a bad state of mind. United Heritage Prop. & Cas. Co. v. Farmers Alliance Mut. Ins. Co., 2012 U.S. Dist. LEXIS 17592 (D. Idaho Feb. 9, 2012).

Procedure.

Employee's punitive damages claim was dismissed where discovery had not been completed on her state law claims of discriminatory discharge and hostile work environment. Collier v. Turner Indus. Group, L.L.C., 797 F. Supp. 2d 1029 (D. Idaho 2011).

Trial court did not abuse its discretion in declining to permit a plaintiff to reopen its case to present evidence to support its punitive damages claim to the jury, where the decision was rendered on the basis that the plaintiff had rested its case in chief without presenting evidence to support an award of such damages. Printcraft Press, Inc. v. Sunnyside Park Utils., Inc., — Idaho —, 283 P.3d 757 (2012).

6-2105. Remedies for employee bringing action — Proof required.

JUDICIAL DECISIONS

Notice Requirement.

City was not entitled to dismissal of a former deputy fire chief's claim alleging wrongful discharge in violation of the Idaho Whistleblower Act, where the claim was filed within the statute of limitations; the notice requirements under §§ 6-906 and 50-219 do not apply to state law claims for damages under the Idaho Whistleblower Act. Brown v. City of Caldwell, 769 F. Supp. 2d 1256 (D. Idaho 2011).

Where an employee resigned due to her perception that there was a hostile working environment, after she complained about an inappropriate romantic relationship between her supervisor and another employee, her constructive discharge claim was time barred. Even if she met the evidentiary burden of showing that the circumstances amounted to constructive discharge, she filed her claim more than 180 days after the discharge occurred. Patterson v. State Dep't of Health & Welfare, 151 Idaho 310, 256 P.3d 718 (2011).

SECTION.

- 6-3001. Short title.
- 6-3002. Purpose.
- 6-3003. Definitions.

SECTION.

- 6-3004. Liability.
- 6-3005. Warning required.
- 6-3006. Taxation status.

6-3001. Short title. — This act shall be known as the “Idaho Agritourism Promotion Act.”

History.

I.C., § 6-3001, as added by 2013, ch. 177,
§ 1, p. 412.

STATUTORY NOTES

Compiler's Notes.

The term “this act” refers to S.L. 2013, ch.

177, which is compiled as §§ 6-3001 through 6-3006.

6-3002. Purpose. — The legislature finds that agriculture plays a substantial role in the economy, culture and history of Idaho. As an increasing number of Idahoans are removed from day-to-day agricultural experiences, agritourism provides a valuable opportunity for the general public to interact with, experience and understand agriculture. Inherent risks exist on farms and ranches, the elimination of which would diminish the agritourism experience. Uncertainty of potential liability associated with inherent risks has a negative impact on the establishment and success of agritourism operations.

History.

I.C., § 6-3002, as added by 2013, ch. 177,
§ 1, p. 412.

6-3003. Definitions. — As used in this chapter, the term:

(1) “Agritourism activity” means any activity carried out on a farm or ranch that allows members of the general public, for recreational, entertainment or educational purposes, to view or enjoy rural activities including, but not limited to, farming, ranching, historic, cultural, on-site educational programs, recreational farming programs that may include on-site hospitality services, guided and self-guided tours, bed and breakfast accommodations, petting zoos, farm festivals, corn mazes, harvest-your-own operations, hayrides, barn parties, horseback riding, fee fishing and camping. An activity is an agritourism activity whether or not the participant paid to participate in the activity.

(2) “Agritourism professional” means any person who is engaged in the business of providing one (1) or more agritourism activities, whether or not for compensation.

(3) “Inherent risks of agritourism activity” means those dangers or conditions that are an integral part of an agritourism activity including certain hazards, including surface and subsurface conditions, natural conditions of land, vegetation, waters, the behavior of wild or domestic animals and ordinary dangers of structures or equipment ordinarily used in farming and ranching operations. Inherent risks of agritourism activity also include the potential of a participant to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury to the participant or others, including failing to follow instructions given by the agritourism professional or failing to exercise reasonable caution while engaging in the agritourism activity.

(4) “Participant” means any person, other than the agritourism professional, who engages in an agritourism activity.

(5) “Person” means an individual, fiduciary, firm, association, partnership, limited liability company, corporation, unit of government or any other group acting as a unit.

History.

I.C., § 6-3003, as added by 2013, ch. 177,
§ 1, p. 412.

6-3004. Liability. — (1) Except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, an agritourism professional is not liable for injury to or death of a participant resulting from the inherent risks of agritourism activities, so long as the warning contained in section 6-3005, Idaho Code, is posted as required and, except as provided in subsection (2) of this section, no participant or participant’s representative can maintain an action against or recover from an agritourism professional for injury, loss, damage or death of the participant resulting from any of the inherent risks of agritourism activities. In any action for damages against an agritourism professional for agritourism activities, the agritourism professional must plead the affirmative defense of assumption of the risk of agritourism activity by the participant.

(2) Nothing in subsection (1) of this section prevents or limits the liability of an agritourism professional if the agritourism professional does any one (1) or more of the following:

- (a) Commits an act or omission that constitutes negligence or willful or wanton disregard for the safety of the participant, and that act or omission proximately causes injury, damage or death to the participant;
- (b) Has actual knowledge or reasonably should have known of a dangerous condition on the land, facilities or equipment used in the activity or the dangerous propensity of a particular animal used in such activity and does not make the danger known to the participant, and the danger proximately causes injury, damage or death to the participant.

(3) Any limitation on legal liability afforded by this section to an agritourism professional is in addition to any other limitations of legal liability otherwise provided by law.

History.

I.C., § 6-3004, as added by 2013, ch. 177,
§ 1, p. 412.

6-3005. Warning required. — (1) Every agritourism professional must post and maintain signs that contain the warning notice specified in subsection (2) of this section. The sign must be placed in a clearly visible location at the entrance to the agritourism location and at the site of the agritourism activity. The warning notice must consist of a sign in black letters, with each letter to be a minimum of one (1) inch in height. Every written contract entered into by an agritourism professional for the providing of professional services, instruction or the rental of equipment to a participant, whether or not the contract involves agritourism activities on or off the location or at the site of the agritourism activity, must contain in clearly readable print the warning notice specified in subsection (2) of this section.

(2) The signs and contracts described in subsection (1) of this section must contain the following notice of warning:

WARNING

Section 6-3004, Idaho Code.

(3) Failure to comply with the requirements concerning warning signs and notices provided in this section shall prevent an agritourism professional from invoking the privileges of immunity provided by the provisions of this chapter.

History.

§ 1, p. 412.

6-3006. Taxation status. — The use of a farm or ranch to conduct an agritourism activity shall not affect the assessment of the property as land actively devoted to agriculture as provided in section 63-604, Idaho Code.
